A Spiritualist Center Newsletter
December 2022

A Message from the Director of Church of Peace

Charvonne Carlson, NST, CM, CH

Happy New Year!

I imagine everyone felt the blast of cold air that blew across the US in December. I hope all were able to stay warm and safe. There were areas hard hit with many losing power and heat. Please keep all affected in healing thoughts and prayers. Also, if possible check your local area to see if you can help with resources, volunteering etc.. If we all contribute a little, we can help many.

This month we will continue our line up of lyceums, circles and services. If there are any classes, and/or events you would like to see, please email the church with your suggestions.

The NSAC newsletter is linked in this newsletter. Please check it out. There are opportunities, information and more inside the National newsletter that may be of interest to you.

Wishing you all a safe and wonderful month.

Many Blessings,

Charvonne

2023 Exploring Trance <https://www.innerspiritualcenter.org/2023-trance-courses>

Church of Peace, A Spiritualist Center is dedicated to the research of Spiritualism.

Through our research we discovered that the Rev. Bertha Crear, was the First Black American Spiritualist to hold credentials with the National Spiritualist Association and Spiritualist National Union in 1922. We were able to gather information about her and her contributions to Spiritualism. While researching, we discovered that there was only a cement number marking her burial spot in Columbus, Ohio. This saddened us.

We decided to have a fundraiser to purchase her a headstone. If you feel moved to contribute, you can use PayPal:

churchofpeacespiritual@gmail.com

The ultimate goal is $3,500 for the headstone including the taxes and fees associated with it.

Fundraiser

Mediums of Church of Peace are offering to do a private readings.
30 minutes for $60

We are at the midway point for the funds needed to acquire the headstone for Rev. Bertha Crear

If you would like to donate or book a reading please contact the church:
churchofpeacespiritual@gmail.com

We will schedule a reading with participating mediums of the Church.

Winter Recipes to Warm the Soul

5-Ingredient Three-Cheese Tortellini Soup Melissa Kitchings

INGREDIENTS

- 1 pound sausage, crumbled and browned
- 2 cans Italian stewed tomatoes
- 2 32-ounce Swanson Chicken Broth
- 2 cloves garlic, chopped
- 1 20-ounce package of three-cheese tortellini

Brown sausage in a skillet.

Then put all ingredients, including cooked sausage, into a large stock pot and place on the stove on medium-low heat for about one hour, stirring occasionally.

When the tortellini starts to fatten up – but not uncurl – the soup is ready to serve.

It's even better the second time around!

Bob GINSBERG

Founder of Forever Family Foundation,
Author and Researcher for the evidence for the survival of consciousness

Bob Ginsberg started researching the evidence for survival of consciousness soon after his daughter died in 2002. Devastated by the loss, he needed science to tell him if she still existed in some form. In 2004 Bob and his wife Phran founded Forever Family Foundation (foreverfamilyfoundation.org), a global not for profit that educates the public about evidence that we are more than our physical bodies. Bob hosts the Signs of Life radio show, is past editor of Signs of Life Magazine, heads the foundation's Medium Evaluation Certification Program, writes a blog at beyondthefivesenses.com, and is the author of The Medium Explosion. Bob, Phran and the foundation are currently featured in the Netflix Docuseries Surviving Death.

SPIRITUALISM: YESTERDAY, TODAY AND TOMORROW

Spiritualism is a religious movement that originated in the United States in the 19th century. It is based on the belief that the spirits of deceased individuals can communicate with the living through mediums. Spiritualism became popular in Washington, D.C. in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, with several prominent figures in the city becoming involved in the movement.

One of the earliest proponents of Spiritualism in Washington, D.C. was Kate Fox, one of the two sisters who are credited with starting the movement in 1848. Fox moved to the city in 1852 and established a Spiritualist community there. She held séances and claimed to be able to communicate with the dead, attracting a large following.

In addition to individual mediums, there were also several Spiritualist organizations active in Washington, D.C. during this time. The National Colored Spiritualist Association of Churches was founded in the city in the late 19th century and had over 100 member churches by the early 20th century. The organization was focused on promoting spiritual healing and the ability of individuals to communicate with the spirit world.

Despite the diversity of spiritualist organizations in Washington, DC, they all shared a belief in the ability to communicate with spirits and the importance of spiritual healing. Many of these organizations also played a role in promoting social justice and equality for African Americans.

Today, there are still a few Spiritualist organizations and individuals in the Washington,
